

MERTON MUSIC

Here is the 2008/9 Merton catalog with 150 new titles (indicated by N after the catalog number) and all at just 25¢ per page of music, an increase due to the falling dollar.. All the music is out of copyright and 90% unobtainable elsewhere. The order form gives instructions on ordering. Do check out the unique series of booklets on p.27 and the bargain selection on p.28

Production. The music is all photocopied on 100 gsm A3 paper in a 160gsm cover. We lack binding facilities so bulky piano parts sometimes come as separate 16 page fascicles in a cover.

Grading system. All string parts (but not piano parts) are graded for difficulty on a five point system. The first movement of Beethoven Op.18 No.1 is the yardstick for Grade 3. Grade 1 is much easier; 2 easier; 4 more difficult and 5 much more difficult.

Abbreviations. Letters in brackets against individual items have the following meanings:

- P Below modern production standards either because of obsolete clefs (especially the "false treble clef" for cello); old style crotchet rests; piano parts with no string staves; or just poor printing quality of the original.
- R No bar numbers or rehearsal letters.
- S Modern computer setting - mostly by Merton Music using Sibelius.
- T Designed for teaching.

Publicity Help spread the word of Merton value by distributing six catalogues to other string players and we will reward you with a free copy of Merton Composers. See the order form for how to claim. You will also get a free copy with any order totalling more than $150.

MERTON BARGAIN SELECTION

The bargain selection introduced in the 2006/7 catalogue was designed to help those puzzled to know what to choose from this enormous catalogue and to tempt others unable to resist a bargain. It sold well but not quite well enough to match our estimate of demand.. We still have sets on the shelf, so to make the offer truly irresistible we are reducing the price still further to $12, just over one-third of the catalogue price. Every single one of these works would cost you $25 from any other publisher. But when they're gone they're gone.

These five quartets are all tuneful, reasonably easy, grateful to play, and, we believe, capable of giving pleasure to amateurs of almost every degree of sophistication. Details are below. Order them as Cat.No.6666 on the order form .

4360 HERMANN F. (1828 - 1903) Quartet in E minor Op.8

Hermann is most often encountered as an arranger and editor. He was a pupil of Ferdinand David at Leipzig and a member of the Gewandhaus Orchestra there.

4674 PLEYEL I. (1757 - 1831) Quartet in C Op.23 No.1

Pleyel was Haydn's favourite pupil, prolific composer, publisher and piano manufacturer. Mozart was so impressed by Pleyel's Op.1 quartets that in a letter to his father he recommended that he get hold of them and suggested that Pleyel might one day take Haydn's place. This is one of a set of six quartets dedicated to the King of Naples.

4805 RICHTER F.X. (1709 - 1789), Quartet in B flat Op.5 No.2

Franz Xaver Richter a Moravian composer, a generation before Haydn, was a leading representative of the Mannheim school of composition. This quartet gives everyone a share of the limelight and ends with a rumbustious fugue.

4665 SPOHR L. (1784-1859) Quartet in G minor Op.157

This was Spohr's last quartet, written, together with Op.155, at the age of 72 for his winter series of chamber music evenings. They were enthusiastically received and Spohr initially considered them worthy of standing alongside his other compositions. But he then broke his arm, lost his ability to play the violin, and fell into a fit of depression in which he ordered his family to suppress them. With the blessing of the Spohr Society of Great Britain Merton Music now publishes them for the first time and they have been recorded on the Marco Polo label.

4507 Swan HENNESSY (1866 - 1929) Suite Op.46

Swan Hennessy was an American pianist and composer of Irish descent who studied in Germany and settled in France. Both French and Irish influences are plain to see in this charming Suite. The work ends with a Celtic-sounding Lament followed immediately by an uninhibited Irish reel.
